9781628102178 Hardback £235.00 / €265.00
University Casebook Series

This casebook embodies the conviction that theoretical and practical legal education are complementary and no more so than in the setting of M&A transactions, where corporate lawyers are regularly called upon to draw on their substantive knowledge of the law to advise clients on how best to effectuate their business objectives. Accordingly, this book retains the most significant judicial decisions in M&A jurisprudence while also making use of textual explication, sample documentary provisions, and the latest teaching methods to deepen students’ understanding of the relevant case law and prepare them for practice.

HIGH COURT CASES SUMMARIES ON CONSTITUTIONAL LAW
(Keyed to Sullivan), Nineteenth Edition
West Academic
May 2017 277pp
9781683288541 Paperback £47.50 / €55.00

High Court Case Summaries
Contains well-prepared briefs for each major case in Sullivan’s casebook on Constitutional Law. While prepared briefs can never substitute for the insight gained by actually reading a case, these briefs will help readers to identify, understand, and absorb the core “take away” knowledge from each case. Moreover, these briefs are followed by a useful legal analysis.

Vigilantes have long been vilified, often deservedly. But what about those who take the law into their own hands only after the criminal justice system has failed? Sadly, argue Paul and Sarah Robinson, while some vigilantism may be morally justified, even the best of intentions can spiral out of control, further eroding public confidence.

A modern conflicts casebook must be flexible. Some professors will choose to cover a great deal of international and comparative law. Others, however, will prefer to address conflicts only in the domestic sphere. This edition fully supports either (or some middle) approach. The professor may comfortably choose how much international and comparative material to cover without losing transition or context.

An Approach to Comparative Law, Second Edition

Alan Watson

1993 121pp

9780820315324 Hardback £40.95 / €47.00

In Legal Transplants, one of the world’s foremost authorities on legal history and comparative law puts forth a clear and concise statement of his controversial thesis on the way that law has developed throughout history. Alan Watson’s argument challenges the long-prevailing notion that a close connection exists between the law and the society in which it operates.

Spirit of the Laws

Focuses on a Muslim legal science known in Arabic as usul al-fiqh. Whereas the kindred science of fiqh is concerned with the articulation of actual rules of law, this science attempts to elaborate the theoretical and methodological foundations of the law. It outlines the features of Muslim juristic thought.

Contains well-prepared briefs for each major case in this casebook. High Court briefs are written to present the essential facts, issue, decision and rationale for each case in a clear, concise manner. While prepared briefs can never substitute for the insight gained by actually reading a case, these briefs will help readers to identify, understand, and absorb the core “take away” knowledge from each case.

FUNDAMENTALS OF FEDERAL ESTATE, GIFT, AND GENERATION-SKIPPING TAXES
Cases and Materials
Anne-Marie Rhodes
Apr 2017 277pp
9781634607629 Hardback £220.00 / €255.00
American Casebook Series

Presents transfer taxation to law students in a clear, logical, and engaging manner. Although tax is statutory, the primary theory underlying this text is that case law makes tax law understandable to students. The primary objective is to have students learn and, therefore, the book does not attempt to hide the ball, as the material itself is difficult enough.
