HAMLET

William Shakespeare
Edited by David Bevington
Sep 2018 325pp, 18 b&w illustrations
9781554813780 Paperback £11.95 / €14.00
A Broadview Internet Shakespeare Edition

In the introduction to this new edition, David Bevington explores some key dilemmas and puzzles in this most famous of Shakespeare’s tragedies. What is the role of providence in a work with pagan sources? How does Hamlet comment on dramatic art in his play within a play? What are the moral ambiguities of seeking revenge?

The introduction also traces the history of Hamlet criticism and performance from 1604, when critic Anthony Scoloker said the play “should please all”, to the 2015 production starring Benedict Cumberbatch. Appendices offer key sources, an analysis of gender issues in the play, and textual variants from Quarto 1.

A collaboration between Broadview Press and the Internet Shakespeare Editions project at the University of Victoria, the editions developed for this series have been comprehensively annotated and draw on the authoritative texts newly edited for the ISE. This innovative series allows readers to access extensive and reliable online resources linked to the print edition.

CONVERSATIONS WITH NEIL GAIMAN

Edited by Joseph Michael Sommers
Sep 2018 240pp
9781496818706 Paperback £22.95 / €26.00
Literary Conversations Series

Neil Gaiman currently reigns in the literary world as one of the most critically decorated and popular authors of the last fifty years. Perhaps best known as the writer of the Harvey, Eisner, and World Fantasy-award-winning DC/Vertigo series, The Sandman, Gaiman quickly became equally renowned in literary circles for works such as Neverwhere, Coraline, American Gods, as well as the Newbery and Carnegie Medal-winning The Graveyard Book. For adults, for children, for the comics reader to the viewer of the BBC’s Doctor Who, Gaiman’s writing has crossed the borders of virtually all media and every language, making him a celebrity on a worldwide scale.

The interviews presented here span the length of his career, beginning with his first formal interview by the BBC at the age of seven and ending with a new, unpublished interview held in 2017. What emerges is a complicated picture of a man who seems fully assembled from the start of his career, but only came to feel comfortable in his own skin and voice far later in life. The man who brought Morpheus from the folds of his imagination into the world shares his dreams and aspirations from different points in his life, including informing readers where he plans to take them next.
BETWEEN TWO MILLSTONES, BOOK 1
Sketches of Exile, 1974–1978
Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn
Translated by Peter Constantine
Foreword by Daniel J. Mahoney
Nov 2018 480pp
9780268105013 Hardback £37.50 / €41.00
The Center for Ethics and Culture Solzhenitsyn Series

Russian Nobel Prize-winner Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn (1918-2008) is widely acknowledged as one of the most important figures - and perhaps the most important writer - of the last century. To celebrate the centenary of his birth, the first English translation of his memoir of his time in the West, Between Two Millstones, Book 1, is being published.

Fast-paced, absorbing, and as compelling as the earlier instalments of his memoir The Oak and the Calf (1975), Between Two Millstones begins on February 12, 1974, when Solzhenitsyn found himself forcibly expelled to Frankfurt, West Germany, as a result of the publication in the West of The Gulag Archipelago. The book contains vivid descriptions of Solzhenitsyn’s journeys to various European countries and North American locales, where he and his wife Natalia (“Alya”) searched for a location to settle their young family. There are fascinating descriptions of one-on-one meetings with prominent individuals, detailed accounts of public speeches such as the 1978 Harvard University commencement, comments on his television appearances, accounts of his struggles with unscrupulous publishers and agents who mishandled the Western editions of his books, and the KGB disinformation efforts to besmirch his name.

ENEMY OF THE PEOPLE
Trump’s War on the Press, the New McCarthyism, and the Threat to American Democracy
Marvin Kalb
Sep 2018 180pp
9780815735304 Hardback £17.95 / €21.00

Shortly after assuming office in January 2017, President Donald Trump accused the press of being an “enemy of the American people”. Attacks on the media had been a hallmark of Trump’s presidential campaign, but this charge marked a dramatic turning point: language like this ventured into dangerous territory. Twentieth-century dictators - notably, Stalin, Hitler, and Mao - had all denounced their critics, especially the press, as “enemies of the people”. Their goal was to delegitimize the work of the press as “fake news” and create confusion in the public mind about what’s real and what isn’t; what can be trusted and what can’t be.

That, it seems, is also Trump’s goal. In Enemy of the People, Marvin Kalb, an award-winning American journalist, writes with passion about why we should fear for the future of American democracy because of the unrelenting attacks by the Trump administration on the press.

As his new book shows, the press has been a bulwark in the defence of democracy. Kalb writes about Edward R. Murrow’s courageous reporting on Senator Joseph McCarthy’s “red scare” theatrics in the early 1950s, which led to McCarthy’s demise. He reminds us of Bob Woodward and Carl Bernstein’s reporting in the early 1970s that led to President Richard Nixon’s resignation.

MODERN KYOTO
Building for Ceremony and Commemoration, 1868–1940
Alice Y. Tseng
Oct 2018 304pp, 74 illustrations, 35 in colour
9780824873752 Hardback £68.95 / €77.00
Spatial Habitus: Making and Meaning in Asia’s Architecture
Can an imperial city survive, let alone thrive, without an emperor? Alice Y. Tseng answers this intriguing question in Modern Kyoto, a comprehensive study of the architectural and urban projects carried out in the old capital following Emperor Meiji’s move to Tokyo in 1868. Tseng contends that Kyoto remained critical to Japan’s emperor-centred national agenda.

IDEALS OF THE BODY
Architecture, Urbanism, and Hygiene in Postrevolutionary Paris
Sun-Young Park
May 2018 352pp, 11 colour plates, 109 b&w Illustrations
9780822945284 Hardback £57.00
9780822945284 £49.95 / €49.95

Ideals of the Body reveals how these anxieties about health and social order, which manifested in emerging ideals of the body, created a uniquely spatial and urban experience of modernity in postrevolutionary Paris, one profoundly impacted by hygiene, mobility, productivity, leisure, spectator, and technology.

BELOMOR
Criminality and Creativity in Stalin’s Gulag
Julie S. Draskoczy
May 2018 252pp
9781618118233 Paperback £24.95 / €29.00

Myths and Taboos in Russian Culture
Containing analyses of everything from prisoner poetry to album covers, Belomor: Criminality and Creativity in Stalin’s Gulag moves beyond the simplistic good/evil paradigm that often accompanies Gulag scholarship. While acknowledging the normative power of Stalinism, the volume also recognizes the various loopholes offered by artistic expression.

A GREAT FEAR
Luis de Onis and the Shadow War Against Napoleon in Spanish America, 1808–1812
Timothy Hawkins
Jan 2019 256pp, 2 b&w figures, 5 maps
9780817320041 Hardback £49.95 / €57.00

Atlantic Crossings
An exploration of the Spanish colonial reaction to the threat of Napoleonic subversion. A Great Fear explores why Spanish Americans did not take the opportunity to seize independence in this critical period when Spain was overrun by French armies and, arguably, in its weakest state.
FORGING COMMUNITIES
Food and Representation in Medieval and Early Modern Southwestern Europe
Montserrat Piera

Explores the importance of the cultivation, provision, trade, and exchange of foods and beverages to technological advancement, conquest, and maritime exploration. These essays show how the sharing of food and drink forged social, religious, and community bonds, and how ceremonial feasts strengthened ties and solidified ethnoreligious identity.

PATRIOTS, TRAITORS AND EMPIRES
The Story of Korea’s Struggle for Freedom
Stephen Gowans

Offers an account of modern Korean history, written from the point of view of those who fought to free their country from the domination of foreign empires. The book traces the history of Korea’s struggle for freedom from opposition to Japanese colonialism starting in 1905 to North Korea’s current efforts to deter the threat of invasion by the United States or anybody else by having nuclear weapons.

THE GREAT IRISH FAMINE
A History in Documents
Edited by Karen Sonnelitter

In the fall of 1845, a mysterious blight ravaged Ireland’s potato harvest, beginning a prolonged period of starvation, suffering, and emigration. This document collection presents a broad selection of historical perspectives - a guide to greater understanding of the causes, the course, and the impact of the Famine.

FROM GUTENBERG TO GOOGLE
The History of Our Future
Tom Wheeler

Shows how literary and visual depictions of black women helped to shape France’s post-revolutionary national identity, particularly in response to the trauma of the French defeat in the Haitian Revolution. The stories of these women reveal a blind spot about race in French national identity that persists in the postcolonial present.

LIKE NO OTHER
Exceptionalism and Nativism in Early Modern Japan
Mark T. McNally

Probes the association of the early modern Japanese intellectual institution called Kokugaku with the phenomenon of nativism. Uncovering differences that cast serious doubt on this association, Mark McNally argues that what Japanologists viewed as nativistic about Kokugaku were actually more typical of what Americanists call exceptionalism.

BLACK CONSCIOUSNESS AND PROGRESSIVE MOVEMENTS UNDER APARTHEID
Ian M. Macqueen
Jul 2018 208pp
9781869143886 Paperback £26.95 / €31.00

This book takes its cue from Steve Biko’s own injunction to see the evolution of Black Consciousness alongside other political doctrines and movements of resistance in South Africa. It identifies progressive thought and movements, such as radical Christianity and ecumenism, student radicalism, feminism and trade unionism, as valuable interlocutors that nonetheless also competed for the mantle of liberation, espousing different visions of freedom.

CRIME AND ANTI-SEMITISM IN PRE-WORLD WAR GERMANY AND AUSTRIA
Theories, Cases and Fictional Depictions
T.S. Kord
Dec 2018 253pp
9781476670126 Paperback £54.95 / €63.00

Kord’s pursuit of the criminal in an antisemitic world considers a vast number of texts - from Nazi propaganda to court reporting and forgotten classics of crime fiction - and raises painful questions. Are there parallels between biological classifications of criminals and racial views of Jews? Can the lovable criminal ever be a Jew? What does he tell us about ideas of German-ness, before and after the World Wars?
RULERS AND REALMS IN MEDIEVAL IBERIA, 711-1492
Timothy M. Flood
Sep 2018 154pp
97814766/4711 Paperback £44.95 / €51.00
The Muslim conquest of Iberia in 711 unleashed a struggle for political control of the peninsula that endured for nearly eight centuries. In this study, the author introduces the general reader to the rulers who exercised authority over the peninsula during a very complex and sometimes confusing period. He guides the reader through the chronology of the rulers’ ascendance, deposition, or demise.

THE BLACK AND THE GRAY
African Americans and the Confederacy
Edwin W. Besch
Oct 2018 141pp
9781476673646 Paperback
£44.95 / €51.00
Describes the political conflicts from 1819-1860 that resulted in the secession of eleven Southern slaves states and the war to preserve the Union, Lincoln’s Emancipation Proclamation and Confederate General Patrick Cleburne’s futile advocacy to emancipate slaves and enlist some in civilian support roles with Confederate armies.
President Eisenhower’s reliance on atomic weapons created as many problems as he hoped to solve. He hoped to provide a sustainable defense strategy that allowed the US to maintain its security requirements without creating an excessive economic burden. This book discusses this defense strategy, known as the New Look.

Demonstrates that it was structural failures at the sharp end that frustrated the Germans in the First World War’s most crucial initial campaign: the invasion of Belgium. Routinization in planning, command, and execution led to groupthink, to inflexibility, to belief that ‘It’ll be all right on the night.’

The transition from the Soviet to the post-1991 Russian military is a fascinating story of decline and reinvention. The Soviet army suffered a slow demise, dissolving in 2000 and only gradually reforming based on radically different principles. This volume, that includes lively accounts and maps, describes this resurgence.

Uses experimental research to analyse the effects of combat drones on Americans’ support for the use of force. The authors’ findings - that drones have had important but nuanced effects on support for the use of force - have implications for democratic control of military action and civil-military relations.

The technical details of British warships were recorded in a set of plans produced by the builders on completion of every ship. Today these plans form part of the incomparable collection of the National Maritime Museum at Greenwich. This book is one of a series based entirely on these drafts which depict famous warships in an unprecedented degree of detail.

Draws on archival resources and the rich scholarship of German naval history over the past five decades to review the evolution of Erich Raeder’s concept of naval strategy and his attempts to achieve the political and military means necessary to attain the navy’s global ambitions.

Broadview Editions

The Middle English romance of Richard Coeur de Lion transforms the historical Richard I of England - a Frenchman by upbringing, who spent only four months of his reign in England - into an aggressively English king. This act of historical revision involves the invention of several fantastic elements that give Richard the superhuman force necessary to unite the English nation.

THE WORKS OF GWERFUL MECHAIN
Edited by Katie Gramich
Translated by Katie Gramich
Aug 2018 120pp
9781554814145 Paperback £14.95 / €17.00

Gwerful Mechain is the only Welsh female poet from the late middle ages whose poems have survived as a substantial body of work. One of the most striking characteristics of her poetry is the easy coexistence in her oeuvre of devotional and erotic works. Yet, as the introduction discusses, some coexistence of the erotic and the religious was not entirely untypical of medieval literary production in Wales.

A LIFE BOTH PUBLIC AND PRIVATE
Expressions of Individuality in Old English Poetry
Brent R. Lapadula
Jul 2018 162pp
9781476673950 Paperback £44.95 / €51.00
Args that a unique sense of self for Anglo-Saxons may be found by looking at their surviving poetry. For the first time, there is an extended monograph on the concept of the individual outside of her community during this period in history. Finally, the conclusion demonstrates that the studies which argue that the individual was something that did not really exist until the Renaissance do not stand up to scrutiny.

The Messages of Horror Literature for Children
K. Shyrock Hood
Jul 2018 188pp
9781476673462 Paperback £39.95 / €46.00
Contemporary horror literature for children and young adults has two bold messages for its readers, messages which are often overlooked: adults are untrustworthy, unreliable, and often dangerous, and the monster always wins. Studying these messages, this book sheds new light on the problematic message produced by the combination of marketing and books for contemporary young readers.

When Fyodor Dostoevsky proclaims that he is a “realist in a higher sense”, it is because the facts are irrelevant to his truth. And it is in this spirit that Apollonio approaches Dostoevsky’s work, reading through the facts of his canonical novels for the deeper truth that they distort, mask, and, ultimately, disclose.
FEELING FAINT
Affect and Consciousness in the Renaissance
Giulio J. Pertile
Feb 2019 200pp
9780810139183 Paperback £34.95 / €40.00
Rethinking the Early Modern
Explores human consciousness in its most basic sense: the awareness, at any given moment, that we live and feel. Such awareness, it argues, is distinct from the categories of selfhood to which it is often assimilated, and can only be uncovered at the margins of first-person experience. What would it mean to be conscious without being a first person - to be conscious in the absence of a self?

This critical edition is the first accurate translation of this unsung classic of Russian thought into English.

ON WEIGHT AND THE WILL
The Forces of Form in German Literature and Aesthetics, 1890-1930
Malika Maskarinec
Sep 2018 280pp, 14 b&w images
9780810137691 Paperback £34.95 / €40.00
Charts a modern history of form as emergent from force. Offering a provocative alternative to the imagery of crisis and estrangement that has preoccupied scholarship on modernism, Malika Maskarinec shows that German modernism conceives of human bodies and aesthetic objects as shaped by a contest of conflicting and reciprocally-intensifying forces.

THE PRICE OF LITERATURE
The French Novel’s Theoretical Turn
Patrick M. Bray
Mar 2019 192pp
9780810139329 Paperback £34.95 / €40.00
Examines the presence of theory in the nineteenth-century French novel. Emerging after the French Revolution, what we call literature was conceived as an art liberated from representational constraints. Patrick Bray shows how literature’s freedom to represent anything has meant, paradoxically, that it cannot articulate a coherent theory of itself.

Inessa Medzhivovskaya
Nov 2018 288pp, 2 images
9780810138803 Paperback £39.95 / €46.00
Studies in Russian Literature and Theory
In the broadest sense, this volume offers a fresh evaluation of Tolstoy’s program to reform the ways we live, work, commune with nature and art, practice spirituality, exchange ideas and knowledge, become educated, and speak and think about history and social change.
In the late 1920s, the first two plays attributed to Ferdinand Bruckner, Youth Is a Sickness and Criminals, were “hot tickets”, but only gradually was the pseudonymous author identified.

Illuminates an early modern debate that recognised the troubling extent to which Christian thought had defined the human in terms of two incompatible models of soul. The English writers studied in this book place two prevailing interpretations of the soul’s faculties into contact as a way to construct a new mode of Christian agency.

Examines Anglophone writers who repurposed William Wordsworth’s poetry. By reading Wordsworth in dialogue with J.M. Coetzee, Lydia Maria Child, and Jamaica Kincaid, Katherine Bergren revitalizes our understanding of Wordsworth’s career and its place in the canon.

On the 200th anniversary of the first edition of Mary Shelley’s Frankenstein, Transmedia Creatures: Frankenstein’s Afterlives presents studies of Frankenstein by international scholars from converging disciplines such as humanities, musicology, film studies, television studies, English and digital humanities.

The upheaval of the Reformation brought radical changes in the beliefs surrounding the assumption and coronation, both of which were eliminated from state-approved liturgy. Queen of Heaven examines canonical as well as obscure images of the Blessed Mother that present fresh evidence of the incompleteness of the English Reformation.

A best-selling novelist in the 1930s, Irène Némirovsky (1903-1942) was rediscovered in 2004, when her Suite Française, set during the fall of France and the first year of German occupation, became a popular and critical success both in France and in the United States. This book offers a sympathetic, nuanced exploration of the fiction and turbulent life of this best-selling author.

A Place Inside Yourself
Edited by Tahneer Oksman & Seamus O’Malley
Jan 2019 240pp
9781496821096 Paperback £27.50 / €31.00
Critical Approaches to Comics Artists Series
In a self-reflexive way, Julie Doucet’s and Gabrielle Bell’s comics, though often autobiographical, defy easy categorization. This volume regards their art as actively feminist, not only because they offer women’s perspectives, but because they do so by provocatively bringing up the complicated, multivalent frameworks of such engagements.

Brent Dulak, Kevin Knodell & David Axe
Illustrated by Per Darwin Berg
Sep 2018 160pp
9781682471005 Paperback £17.50 / €20.00
Brent Dulak doesn’t want to go to Afghanistan. Haunted by the memories of his two tours in Iraq and burnt out on soldiering, he wants nothing more than to drink to self-destructive excess and have meaningless sex with questionable women. Brutally honest and darkly funny, Machete Squad is the story of a soldier trying to keep people alive as America’s longest war rages all around him.

THE ‘STAN
Kevin Knodell & David Axe
Illustrated by Blue Delliquanti
Sep 2018 128pp
9781682470985 Paperback £14.95 / €18.00
A collection of comics about America’s longest war. The tales in this book - based on reporting by David Axe and Kevin Knodell and drawn by artist Blue Delliquanti - are all true and took place in roughly the first decade of the US military intervention in Afghanistan. While the stories are from the recent past, The ’Stan is still very much about Afghanistan’s, and America’s, present. And likely future.

THE ECHO OF ODIN
Norse Mythology and Human Consciousness
Edward W.L. Smith
Oct 2018 158pp
9781476675091 Paperback £54.95 / €63.00

The pagan mythology of the Vikings offers a rich metaphor of consciousness. For the first time, the cosmography contained in Norse mythology is presented as a map of human consciousness, a landscape of the soul. Each of the nine worlds of this cosmography is explored as a symbol of a particular type of consciousness, each world emblematic of a particular perspective and way of relating to others.

AQUINAS ON EMOTION’S PARTICIPATION IN REASON
Nicholas Kahm
Jan 2019 277pp
9780813231570 Hardback £75.95 / €85.00

Presents Aquinas’s answer to the perennial question: In what way can the emotions be rational? For Aquinas, the starting point of this inquiry is Aristotle’s claim (EN.I.13) that there are three parts to the soul: the rational part; the non-rational part which can participate in reason; and the non-rational part that does not participate in reason.

Skepticism, Literature, and Philosophy
Zahi Zalloua
Oct 2018 240pp
9780810137783 Paperback £34.95 / €40.00
Engaging scholars from across humanistic fields grappling with the role and value of theory in our times, Theory’s Autoimmunity argues for reclaiming theory’s scepticism as a value. To cultivate theory’s sceptical impulses is to embrace what Jacques Derrida has termed autoimmunity: a condition of openness to the outside that allows for change.

INTENTION, CHARACTER, AND DOUBLE EFFECT
Lawrence Masek
Nov 2018 240pp, 25 images, 3 tables
9780268104696 Hardback £42.50 / €47.00
The principle of double effect has a long history, from scholastic disputations about self-defence and scandal to current debates about terrorism, torture, euthanasia, and abortion. Despite being widely debated, the principle remains poorly understood. This book combines theoretical and applied questions into a systematic defence of the principle that does not depend on appeals to authority or intuitions about cases.

Charles Renouvier’s Political Philosophy of Science
Warren Schmaus
Sep 2018 208pp
9780822945352 Hardback £34.95 / €40.00

Renouvier emerged from youthful positivism and left-wing political activity to create a philosophy of science that challenged any political ideology that claimed the status of a science. At the same time, he revealed the political character of the sciences. Although Renouvier may have held some conservative ideas about mathematics and evolution, they were not due to his conventionalism, as this book shows.

As Miles Larner writes in the foreword, this book is unlike any political memoir you have ever read – it is a political history of Zambia from colonial times to the present but also a chronicle of the rise and fall of two improbable political allies who wanted to change Zambian politics: Michael Sata, whose convoluted political career led him to become president in 2011, and Guy Scott, Sata’s vice president and, after Sata’s death, acting president of Zambia. Not least, it is a pleasure to read.

CLINTON’S WAR ON TERROR
James D. Boys
Sep 2018 270pp
9781626377431 Hardback £81.50 / €92.00

In the aftermath of the attacks of September 11, 2001, President Bill Clinton’s time in office was portrayed as one in which vital opportunities to confront growing threats to US security were missed. Firmly challenging this characterization, James Boys explores the long-misunderstood approach adopted by the Clinton administration as it sought to define an effective response to acts of political violence.

Luigi Taparelli and the Origins of Modern Catholic Social Thought
Thomas C. Behr
Dec 2018 277pp
9780813231181 Hardback £75.95 / €85.00

Luigi Taparelli, SJ, 1793-1862 presented a neo-Thomistic approach to social, economic, and political sciences grounded in an integral conception of the human person as social animal but also as a rational truth seeker. In this book, Taparelli’s ideas are evaluated both for their philosophical character but also in their historical context.

2019
Thomas W. Hale
Jun 2018 928pp
9780826135582 Paperback £49.95 / €58.00

Written by a world-renowned expert in perinatal pharmacology, this essential reference contains current, complete, and evidence-based information on the transmission of maternal drugs into human milk. Because so many women ingest medications while breastfeeding, one of the most common questions encountered in pediatrics is: Which drugs are safe and which are hazardous for the infant?

This 2019 edition has been extensively revised, and now includes 39 completely new and 331 updated medications, and state-of-the-art coverage of multiple diseases, vaccines, and syndromes. It addresses the use of radiopharmaceuticals, chemotherapeutic agents, and vaccines in breastfeeding mothers, and covers adult concerns, methods of reducing risk to infants, and infant monitoring.

New to the 2019 edition:
- An updated design for easier access to information
- Drug names in running heads for easier reference
- The latest information on the impact of prescription medications, over-the-counter drugs, herbs, and street drugs
- Updates to existing drug monographs

AFIP Atlas of Tumor Pathology, Series 4, No. 27

Numerous advances in our understanding of the pathology and molecular features of liver tumors have been made since the publication of the previous series, nearly two decades ago.

Examples of recent advances include the identification of novel entities, including their precursor lesions, the discovery of key molecular changes, including the fusion transcript between the DNAJB1 gene and the PRKACA gene in fibrolamellar carcinoma, the use of glutamine synthetase in the diagnosis of focal nodular hyperplasia, and the subtyping of hepatocellular adenomas using molecular and immunohistochemical methods. Together with the more unified classification and terminology of intrahepatic bile duct tumors and their precursors, these advances call for updated information that is presented in this volume.

THE SUPREME COURT
An Essential History, Second Edition
Peter Charles Hoffer, William James Hull Hoffer & N.E.H. Hull
Aug 2018 512pp
9780700626823 Paperback £29.95 / €34.00
Chronicles an institution that dramatically evolved from six men meeting in borrowed quarters to the most closely watched tribunal in the world. Combining doctrine and judicial biography with case law, the authors demonstrate how the justices have shaped the law and how the law that the Court makes has shaped America, with an emphasis on how the Court responded - or failed to respond - to the plight of the underdog.

Having a Mind for Murder
Donald Grant

Jun 2018 277pp
9780522873597 Paperback £25.95 / €29.00

Forensic psychiatrist Donald Grant asks what it is about murder that fascinates us. Is it a chill whisper of fear reminding us we too can kill?

Grant describes ten true murder cases, each different, each complex, each with unique triggers. He argues that our restless chatter about it, our state of heightened alert, our endless viewing, may be play therapy, reassuring us that our own killer instinct is under control.

ALGEBRAIC $\mathcal{Q}$-GROUPS AS ABSTRACT GROUPS
Olivier Frecon
Aug 2018 99pp
9781470429232 Paperback £73.50 / €83.00
Memoirs of the American Mathematical Society, Vol. 255, No. 1219
Analyses the abstract structure of algebraic groups over an algebraically closed field $K$. For $K$ of characteristic zero and $G$ a given connected affine algebraic $\mathcal{Q}$-group, the theorem describes the affine algebraic $\mathcal{Q}$-groups $H$ such that the groups $H(K)$ and $G(K)$ are isomorphic as abstract groups.

Aug 2018 224pp
9781470440398 Paperback £48.95 / €55.00
Student Mathematical Library, Vol. 86
One of the great appeals of Extremal Set Theory as a subject is that the statements are easily accessible without a lot of mathematical background, yet the proofs and ideas have applications in a wide range of fields. Written by two of the leading researchers in the subject, this book highlights the elegance and power of this field of study.
INTRODUCTION TO NUMBER THEORY
Daniel E. Flath
Aug 2018 212pp
9781470446949 Hardback £49.95 / €56.00
AMS Chelsea Publishing, Vol. 384

Growing out of a course designed to teach Gauss’s Disquisitiones Arithmeticae to honors-level undergraduates, this volume focuses on Gauss’s theory of binary quadratic forms. It is suitable for use as a textbook in a course or self-study by students who possess a basic familiarity with abstract algebra.

LECTURES ON NAVIER-STOKES EQUATIONS
Tai-Peng Tsai
Jul 2018 224pp
9781470430962 Hardback £78.50 / €78.00
Graduate Studies in Mathematics, Vol. 192

A graduate text on the incompressible Navier-Stokes system, which is of fundamental importance in mathematical fluid mechanics as well as in engineering applications. The goal is to give a rapid exposition on the existence, uniqueness, and regularity of its solutions, with a focus on the regularity problem.

9780522873313 Paperback £22.50 / €25.00

AI can be all too human: quick to judge, capable of error, vulnerable to bias. It’s made by humans after all. Made by Humans explores our role in automation and the responsibilities we must take on. Roaming from Australia to the UK and the US, this is a personal, thought-provoking examination of humans as data and humans as the designers of systems that try to understand us.

INNOVATIONS IN AUTOMOTIVE AND AEROSPACE ASSEMBLY
George Nicholas Bullen
Jun 2018 179pp
9780768082814 Hardback £80.95 / €91.00

Addresses how new, disruptive materials usage is changing the manufacturing and production processes for the transportation industries. Highlights of the book include non-contact laser technology’s transition into aerospace use; emerging thickness and hole measurement gauge technologies; and non-destructive adhesive inspection techniques.

BIOLOGY

Delve Publishing

BACTERIAL CELL BIOLOGY
Edited by Olivia Bouisset
Oct 2018 300pp
9781773611907 Hardback £141.00 / €162.00

Edited by experts, this book includes contributions discussing dimensional organisation of the bacterial cell, and various subcellular structures found in bacteria. Providing an integrated collection of contributions from leading researchers and scientists, this book will be an invaluable reference for researchers and of general use to teachers, students, and scientists in bacterial cell biology.

EMBRYOLOGY OF PLANTS
Ant Okon Eheetuei
Oct 2018 300pp
9781773610597 Hardback £137.00 / €157.00

Focuses on the common developmental process and compiles novel tools and methods designed specifically for studying plant embryogenesis. This handy tool is ideally suited to researchers and graduate students seeking a coherent view of current perspectives on embryogenesis and endosperm development in flowering plants.

FUNGI AND THEIR UTILIZATIONS
Rabia Iftekhar
Oct 2018 300pp
9781773610573 Hardback £141.00 / €162.00

Offers a comprehensive and thoroughly integrated treatment of the biology of the fungi, and deals with the application of fungi and the strategic management of some plant pathogens. The information presented is intended for everyone interested in fungi, anyone who needs tools to study them in nature, and citizen scientists and sophisticated amateurs.

INTRODUCTION TO PROCESS CONTROL
Euan Russano & Elaine Ferreira Avelino
Oct 2018 300pp
9781773611525 Hardback £145.00 / €167.00

Introduces data processing and reconciliation along with process monitoring as integral components of overall control system architecture. This book is packed with the most important methods and practical information used for the design of digital controls implemented in industrial applications to engineers and technicians unfamiliar with control techniques.

ADVANCED FUZZY LOGIC APPROACHES IN ENGINEERING SCIENCE
Edited by Mangey Ram
Sep 2018 351pp
9781522557098 Hardback £216.00 / €247.00
Provides innovative insights into a comprehensive range of soft fuzzy logic techniques applied in various fields of engineering problems like fuzzy sets theory, adaptive neuro fuzzy inference system, and hybrid fuzzy logic genetic algorithms belief networks in industrial and engineering settings.

BIG DATA ANALYTICS FOR SMART AND CONNECTED CITIES
Edited by Nilanjan Dey & Sharvari Tamane
Sep 2018 300pp
9781522562078 Hardback £198.00 / €227.00
Provides vital research on the application of the integration of interconnected technologies and big data analytics into the creation of smart cities. Highlighting topics such as energy conservation, public transit planning, and performance measurement, this publication explores technology integration in urban environments.

ROCK SLOPE STABILITY
Second Edition
Charles A. Kliche
Aug 2018 376pp
9780873353694 Hardback £175.00 / €197.00
Focuses on rock slope stability, with sections on geological data collection, geotechnical data collection and analysis, surface water and groundwater effects, kinematic and kinetic stability analysis, rock slope stabilization techniques, and rock slope instrumentation and monitoring.

technical engineering presents problems in networks like problems in fields like soft computing, applied various eld logic techniques to solve problems. Books show how soft computing techniques can be applied to solve problems in research and practice. The book presents various civil engineering research problems using soft computing techniques.
ENABLING TECHNOLOGIES FOR THE INTERNET OF THINGS
Wireless Circuits, Systems and Networks
Edited by Sergio Saponara
Jul 2018 350pp
9781786397477 Hardback £78.95 / €90.00
Tutorials in Circuits and Systems
Discusses new trends in Internet-of-Things (IoT) technologies, with a special focus on electronic and electromagnetic circuits and systems. Functional safety is one of the emerging key issues in IoT applications in industry 4.0, autonomous and connected vehicles and e-health.

FIELD GUIDE TO INFRARED OPTICS, MATERIALS, AND RADIOMETRY
Arnold Daniels
Aug 2018 140pp
9781510618602 Spiral bound £39.50 / €45.00
Field Guide, Vol. 39
Covers all aspects of IR optics, including monochromatic and chromatic optical aberrations as well as important concepts such as depth of focus, depth of field, hyperfocal distance, warm shields, aspheric surfaces, and kinoforms. It also provides a comprehensive introduction to the optical, mechanical, and thermal properties of infrared materials.

FIELD GUIDE TO INFRARED SYSTEMS, DETECTORS, AND FPAs
Third Edition
Arnold Daniels
Aug 2018 174pp
9781510618640 Spiral bound £39.50 / €45.00
Field Guide, Vol. 40
Explores fundamental background issues for optical detection processes. The book combines numerous engineering disciplines necessary for the development of an infrared system. It considers the development of search infrared systems and specifies the main descriptors used to characterize thermal imaging systems.

MECHANISMS HEAT TRANSFER
Conduction, Convection, and Radiation
Edited by Harinirina Randrianarisoa
Oct 2018 300pp
9781773611044 Hardback £141.00 / €162.00
Presenting the basic mechanisms for transfer of heat, this book provides a deeper and more comprehensive view than existing titles intended for students on the subject. The text addresses the implications, limitations, and meanings of many aspects of heat transfer, connecting the subject to its real-world applications.

PRINCIPLES OF BIOREACTOR DESIGN
Binoy Ranjan Maiti
Sep 2018 606pp
9789387692824 Paperback £35.00 / €39.00
Deals with some basic aspects of reactor design for both chemical and biochemical systems.
APPLIED GEOSCIENCE IN SHALE EXPLORATION & PRODUCTION

Peter Bartok
Aug 2018 392pp
9781593704070 Hardback £121.00 / €136.00

Understanding and managing shale resources requires a unique understanding of the geology, geophysics, rock physics and rock mechanics of each reservoir. This book bridges the barriers of communication between disciplines whilst creating an optimal work flow for a shale resource assessment and achieving a greater understanding of a shale resource potential.

FUNDAMENTALS OF MARINE RISER MECHANICS

Basic Principles and Simplified Analyses, Second Edition

Charles Sparks
Jun 2018 446pp, includes CD ROM
9781593704063 Hardback £130.00 / €147.00

Marine risers are unusual structures that defy standard engineering intuition, yet they are critical to the safety and structural integrity of offshore platforms. In this new edition, six additional chapters provide further arguments to support effective tension as well as original analysis of helical buckling.

FUNDAMENTALS OF TRADING ENERGY FUTURES & OPTIONS

Third Edition

Luc Marest & Steven Errera
Aug 2018 390pp
9781593703264 Hardback £74.95 / €83.00

This long-awaited new edition highlights how exchange-traded futures and options markets work and how companies can successfully use the markets in their overall strategy to increase profitability.

LOCAL CONTENT FOR THE INTERNATIONAL PETROLEUM INDUSTRY

Eduardo G. Pereira & Tonje P. Gormley
Jun 2018 482pp
9781593704100 Hardback £111.00 / €126.00

The term “local content” refers to the value petroleum activities bring to a country beyond the direct revenues from hydrocarbons. With the insight of experts from around the world, this text explores the policies of more than two dozen countries, each with its own approach. It also discusses historical context.

INTRODUCTION TO PETROLEUM SEISMOLOGY

Second Edition

Luc T. Ikelle & Lasse Amundsen
Jun 2018 1404pp
9781560803430 Hardback £312.00 / €355.00

Investigations in Geophysics, Vol. 12

Provides theoretical and practical foundations for tackling present and future challenges of petroleum seismology, especially those related to seismic survey designs, data acquisition, seismic and EM modelling, seismic imaging, microseismicity, and reservoir characterization and monitoring.

ADVANCED INJECTION MOLDING TECHNOLOGIES
Shia-Chung Chen & Lih-Sheng Turng
Oct 2018 500pp
9781569906033 Hardback £115.00 / €150.00

Leading international experts cover the most recent and significant developments in advanced injection molding technologies, such as intelligent process control, emerging special injection molding processes, process visualization, variable mold temperature technologies, and computer-aided engineering (CAE).

MICRO INJECTION MOLDING
Guido Tosello
Aug 2018 408pp
9781569906538 Hardback £115.00 / €130.00

Provides engineers, project managers, researchers, consultants, and other professionals involved in precision polymer processing and micro manufacturing with a comprehensive, up-to-date, and detailed treatment of the main topics related to micro molding, from material and process technology to tooling, to multimaterial process variations.

MOLDING SIMULATION

Shweta Rajawat & M.M. Malik
Aug 2018 277pp
9780791860458 Hardcover £103.00 / €116.00

Introduces the historical background to silver and offers an exhaustive literature review conducted during the research. The book gives details about the existing physical, chemical and biological approaches. It includes the study of the effect of the current, temperature, strength of the precursor, and reducing/capping agents.

A CONCISE INTRODUCTION TO QUANTUM MECHANICS
Mark S. Swanson
Jun 2018 183pp
9781681747170 Hardcover £63.95 / €73.00

Provides a self-contained presentation of the mathematics and physics of quantum mechanics. Relevant aspects of classical mechanics and electrodynamics are reviewed, and the basic concepts of wave-particle duality are developed as a logical outgrowth of experiments involving blackbody radiation, the photoelectric effect, and electron diffraction.

ELECTRODYNAMICS
Problems and Solutions
Carolina C. Ilie & Zachariah S. Schrecengost
Jun 2018 183pp
9781681749280 Paperback £54.95 / €62.00

This book of problems and solutions is a natural continuation of Ilie and Schrecengost’s first book Electromagnetism: Problems and Solutions. As with the first book, it is written for junior or senior undergraduate students, and for graduate students who may have not studied electrodynamics and want to work on more problems.

ADVANCED CONDITION MONITORING AND FAULT DIAGNOSIS OF ELECTRIC MACHINES
Edited by Muhammad Irfan
Sep 2018 295pp
9781522569893 Hardcover £198.00 / €227.00

Presents a collection of innovative research on various issues related to machinery condition monitoring, signal processing and conditioning, instrumentation and measurements, and new trends in condition monitoring. The book pays special attention to the fault identification process.

HOW TO UNDERSTAND QUANTUM MECHANICS
John P. Ralston
Jun 2018 221pp
9781681741628 Paperback £72.95 / €83.00

Presents an accessible introduction to understanding quantum mechanics in a natural and intuitive way. A theoretical physicist reveals dozens of easy tricks that avoid long calculations, makes complicated things simple, and bypasses the worthless anguish of famous scientists who died in angst.

Theory and Practice
R.C.S Mehta & N.S Gaira
Sep 2018 264pp
9789352656181 Paperback £23.95 / €27.00

Designed as a “Rapid Learning Package”, written with a view to familiarise students of technical institutes/colleges with the elementary theory and practice, and the conventional tools and equipment used for the manufacturing of engineering goods.
AN INTRODUCTION TO QUANTUM COMMUNICATION NETWORKS
Or, How Shall We Communicate in the Quantum Era?
Mohsen Razavi

With the fast pace of developments in quantum technologies, it is more than ever necessary to make the new generation of students in science and engineering familiar with the key ideas behind such disruptive systems. This book provides the reader with the basic tools needed to understand the latest developments and future directions.

IOP Concise Physics

THE SEISMIC SIGNAL AND ITS MEANING
André Luiz Romanelli Rosa

An updated translation that connects the literature and routine activities of geophysicists. It shows how practical problems have links to seismic data analysis theory. Phase and amplitude distortions to the seismic signal, the physical processes that it undergoes, and the interpretation methods to recover rock physics properties are explained.

WHEN GALAXIES COLLIDE
Lisa Harvey-Smith

The Andromeda Galaxy is rushing towards us at 400,000 kilometres an hour. When Galaxies Collide will guide you to look at the night sky afresh. It peers 5.86 billion years into the future to consider the fate of Earth. Will the solution be to live in space without a planet to call home? Will one of the other 100 billion planets spawn life?
